

Quite honestly I feel as though telecommuters should be able to call, however, since there is no way to effectively manage repeat callers (the federal law has a very lax procedure) who are often times the nuisance ... New Jersey's plan is the best. My personal home phone rings very little anymore and I am enjoying the peace and quiet. Do not touch New Jerseys Do Not Call list they system works....leave it be!!